The colorized black-and-white photos are a distraction. The American Civil War has amazing photographic history; colorizing the photos is both unnecessary and annoying. Apart from that, this book offers a good visual overview of the artifacts (and some history) of the American Civil War. Good for basics: names, dates, events. Don't miss the pages at the back, offering facts, Q&A, a timeline (list!), suggestions for further research, a glossary, and an index. A timeline... should be a LINE.
