Synopsis

The exciting sequel to Slam Dunk! Julian Pryce was once the star center of the Tornadoes. But when he joins a new team after his family moves, he suddenly finds himself the star benchwarmer. It turns out the Warriors already have a starting center, Paul Boyd, who has no intention of sharing the court with Julian. The coach is no help, either, for one simple reason: Paul is his son! Now Julian may have to take drastic measures if he's going to get back into the game. . . but is he to blame when Paul winds up in the hospital?

Customer Reviews

My 9 yr old isn't a big fan of reading a lot but he will be interested if it involves a sports story. He was able to get through the story fairly quickly. I know he would be interested in reading more Matt Christopher books.

Changing circumstances may often force us to adjust like in this story when a star basketball player joined a new team which already had it's own star basketball center. Social issues with friends, and favoritism, often rears its ugly head and the kid had to learn how to cope with things that were beyond his control and challenging. It's another great Matt Christopher sport story that no kid will want to be without, I strongly recommend it, I give it 5 stars, and I'm Marvin P. Ferguson, author of Boys On The Gold Coast.

this book is perfect for people who have trouble socializing with new new kids. the best part is the solution to the problem and just being selfish ruins your specialization.

this book was really entertaining it was easy to follow and great for kids i recomend this to kid ages 7-12 my son loved it so much

It was pretty good if you like basketball ans sports matt christopher is a good author and id like to read more of his books

Teaches you new kids aren't going to get your spot on the team. They have to work for it just like you have to.

Y solo YoloGThe kids good he can dunk it in your faceood.I like the dunk the dude had I can't imagine him dunking as a kid.

Our great-grandson was pleased to receive this gift, as it is something he has been wanting to buy on his own.
