Customer Reviews

for my Grandchildren, their mother says they love the stories, super great for all young ages, remember reading to your children will guarantee their success in later life. Even talking or singing will have a beneficial effect

This was just what my grandson wanted. Lots of great pictures of Mars and Mars landers Great book. Makes Mars sound liveable..

Science books at this level is really good. My 5 year old is very much interested in learning about planets and this book is great introduction as well as motivate kids to read more.

My son loved this book!

My 5-year-old was intrigued by this book, even if he isn't quite "there" to read it himself. Lots of facts and colorful photos to indulge in.
