According to my 9 year old (who's read the book recently), it's a pretty good book and something she'd like to try someday (staying in a cabin in the snow). As a parent, I've got to say it's nice to still have a few things in life that don't need to be CONSTANTLY monitored for content and to know that this series is one in which good wins out, hard work, persistence, and team work are rewarded, and family is still the most important thing in the world.

I love this series of books! My granddaughter received this ebook for a long car ride we had to take. It kept her entertained and I knew when I ordered it it would be age appropriate and fun to read. Score one for grandma!

I enjoy this book because it was so good and it was also confusing (in a good way). I love how the author makes it seem like it is so real, I also love how the characters in this book are so secretive. It really makes you think!! People who can read chapter-books, this is for you!!    —

I am a 10 year old girl.I have read 2 Boxcar Children books so far (including this one)I think it was a great book!! really like mystery stories.So I am looking forward to reading more of the Boxcar Children books.

Love reading with my daughter and she loves these books! With a summer birthday, it gave me the perfect excuse to get her a few books to keep her interested in reading over the summer!
